

Q1 2026 • PAC Update

Our Voice in Washington

Building Relationships. Driving Impact. Strengthening Our Voice.

T1PAC continues to support leaders shaping national security, defense innovation, and federal appropriations that directly impact TurbineOne's mission.

The first quarter of 2026 marked an active and impactful start to the year for T1PAC and our Government Relations efforts.

As Congress worked through critical funding and national security priorities, T1PAC supported key policymakers who oversee defense, intelligence, and appropriations decisions that directly affect TurbineOne's customers and long-term growth.

At the same time, our Government Relations team continued engaging lawmakers to educate them on the real-world impact of our technology and advocate for sustained investment in defense innovation.

T1PAC remains:

- ✓ 100% voluntary
- ✓ Nonpartisan
- ✓ Employee-funded
- ✓ Fully transparent and FEC-regulated

Thank you to everyone who supports and engages with T1PAC. Every contribution strengthens our collective voice.

Why These Relationships Matter

Appropriations decisions directly affect:

- ✓ Defense innovation funding
- ✓ Technology modernization programs
- ✓ Customer procurement priorities
- ✓ Long-term national security investment

T1PAC enables TurbineOne to build constructive, long-term relationships with policymakers responsible for these decisions.

Looking Ahead

In the coming months, T1PAC and our GR team will focus on:

Continued appropriations engagement

National defense authorization discussions

Expanding participation across eligible employees

Strategic event engagement with key committee leaders

Our goal remains simple: ensure TurbineOne's mission is understood and supported in Washington.

Government Relations Update

Advocacy in Action: Q1 Engagement Highlights

In addition to PAC activity, our Government Relations team actively engaged Members of Congress and staff on:

- ✓ FY26 Defense Appropriations
- ✓ National security modernization priorities
- ✓ Emerging technology integration
- ✓ Innovation-driven procurement reform

During Q1, we held meetings with Members and senior staff across:

- ✓ House and Senate Appropriations Committees
- ✓ Armed Services Committees
- ✓ Intelligence-focused offices

These conversations ensure lawmakers understand:

- ✓ The operational impact of our technology
- ✓ Real-world use cases
- ✓ The importance of sustained innovation funding

T1PAC complements this work by strengthening relationships and supporting leaders aligned with these priorities.
